

ONTARIO'S FDR WEEK HIGHLIGHTS

NOVEMBER 23 - 27, 2015

Supported by:

The Law Society of Upper Canada

Barreau du Haut-Canada

TAG The Action Group on Access to Justice
Groupe d'action sur l'accès à la justice

ALL In THE FAMILY: FAMILY DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROFESSIONALS ...UNDER ONE ROOF.

CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

KEYNOTE ADDRESS:

Premier Kathleen Wynne

OPENING PLENARY:

Dr. Bernie Mayer, Professor of Dispute Resolution
& author of The Conflict Paradox

MORNING WORKSHOP:

From the Eyes of the Client – FDR clients speak about their experiences navigating various dispute resolution processes

LUNCH AND AGM:

Opportunity to network and meet the new FDRIO
Board

AFTERNOON WORKSHOP:

Case Scenario: Untangling Harry and Harriet!

A multi-disciplinary panel considers the similarities and differences among negotiation, mediation/arbitration and collaborative practice.

CLOSING PLENARY:

Where do we go from here? A highly interactive and creative engagement of participants in designing FDRIO's future goals, structure and priorities.

EVENT HIGHLIGHTS

NOVEMBER 24

Free Public Forums:

Toronto City Hall, Barrie City Hall, Durham and more:
Visit a mobile "Family Law Information Centre"; speak with experts in different FDR processes; learn and share your stories!

NOVEMBER 25

Academic / Access to Justice Forum / Law Society of Upper Canada:

Hear from academics, domestic violence experts, community dispute resolution professionals, Legal Aid Ontario, and other partners seeking to enhance access to justice in FDR.

NOVEMBER 26

Mediation-Arbitration Workshop for FDR Professionals:

Law Society of Upper Canada. Learn from experienced mediator-arbitrators in Ontario and BC

NOVEMBER 24-26

Various Locations:

Newmarket, Barrie, Ottawa, Durham

Public and Professional events

DECEMBER 3

Interdisciplinary Trainers' Forum:

Law Society of Upper Canada. Join FDR Trainers at this first forum to discuss how training, certification and internships in family mediation, collaborative practice, elder mediation, parenting coordination and early neutral consultation can be streamlined and harmonized.

For more information, or to organize an event, visit: fdrweek.ca

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION
SEE OUR WEBSITE: FDRIO.CA

